The attraction of Fox coulee is that

ALL LOOK ALIKE TO W. JOHNSON

Crack Pitcher of Washington Senators Had no Fear of Cobb or Lajoie.

All shuggers look alike to Walter Johnson, the Idaho hot boy. He is against a Cobb, or a Lajoie, the strike-cue king and slab mainstay of the Alcester Washington troupe travels the same nerve-racking clip when shunted to the mound. With a few more batters of Johnson's ilk, noted wall-poppers striving for automobiles and swathing honors would have tough sledding.

In the American league batting race recently ended, returning Cobb the master of ten all, Johnson stood head and shoulders above his fellow-fighters, an obelisk in the pathway of the two scratch men—Tyus and Larry. Figures recently compiled credit Cobb with four hits in eighteen times at bat against Johnson for an average of .222, while Lajoie, in twenty times up against the Washington marvel, picked four safeties, earning an average of .200.

Interest evinced in the neck-and-neck race waged by Lajoie and Cobb all season has taken a new turn since the historic "Black Beauty" and Louisville slogger have been dropped in mourning and said aside for the winter.

While not engaged in bombarding the Yankee slab experts Tyus derived great pleasure from his encounters with the White Sox stars. In seventy-six times at bat against the Highland fencers Tyus knocked a record of thirty-six safe knocks for an average of .474. He did not stick less than .390 against any team in the league, and found two of the clubs good for percentages of over .400.

Duff's white-necked knollmen were nicked for a grand total of .465, with White, Olmstead, Walsh and Lange all coming in for their bumps.

Conic Mack's brilliant band of box-men—Coombs, Deader, Plank and Morgan—gave Cobb several setbacks, for in all his stunts on the championship forces the Tiger club slogger installed an average of only .318. Against the Cleveland pitchers Ty averaged .393, while he hung up marks of .462 against Boston, .361 against St. Louis and .365 against Washington, always slumping however, in games against the Senators when Johnson was taking his turn on the firing line.

Just as Cobb found the Mackmen easy, so did Lajoie, waging Connie's pennant-winning staff for a total of 20 hits in 89 times at bat, acquiring an average of .326. He also pounded the leader above the 300 notch against all other clubs, finding the St. Louis pitchers the easiest in the circuit, going to bat 83 times for 41 hits and an average of .494. In one respect Larry had the edge of his Detroit rival, going over the 400 mark against Detroit, St. Louis and Washington.

SOME HUNTING YARNS

Anise Young May Re-organize the Deacons and Retain a Franchise in the League.

The annual meeting of the City Hockey League on Friday evening may see some competition for the vacant franchise. The Deacons have already applied for it, and now comes along another aggregation with rather a strong claim to the coveted berth.

Deacon White, who backed last year's champions, The Deacons, decided definitely this winter to withdraw from the game. But this old players are sticking together and there is a chance of Anise Young entering in the league under a new club name.

Anise has Dea, the star left wing, Gordon Barford, who scintillated on the right boards, and the promise that Art McGowan will return from Calgary to resume his old position as power. The only absence from the forward line that helped to win the cup last year, would be Pierre Cavanagh, who is at present in Castor.

Anise has Russ Allen for goal, and would have to add a new point and cover as Bill Barford will be with the Bruins and Ham Adams is organizing the Bankers' team.

Pickings from Puck.

Every team in the north has been after Dea but it appears now that Anise Young has landed this valuable player.

Who will the University play in the nets? Chubby Clark will probably join Ab. Kent's Strathcona team while Court May should be the Varsity goal guardian with Blayney out on the line. In Red Dixon, Dean and Goodrich have some speed, up front.

The Eskimos are doing some tall scurrying around in quest of hockey players. Fred McKeeney, Bill Barford, Lines, McCarthy, Scrapper McDonald, Chinnick and O'Donohue have already signed, and the ruggies have a number of more well-known local stars in view.

The Bankers will have a star goal in Kenrick, who defended the Kenora nets before Geroux trekked to that town. Jim Taylor, Ham Aldous, Jimmy Mann, Murphy, McLean and Lister are other probabilities for the Money Makers.

When Pete Barley sees a sporting scribble in the office, he disguises himself as a government official and forgets that he is a hockey magnet. The Y.M.C.A. will have Wrigley, their last year's goal-keeper, on deck again, but outside of that, Pete is mmm.

McLure, who played on the Calgary Tiger's forward line last winter is in town and should be quickly grabbed by one of the local teams.

Under the present arrangement, the City League will have two rinks this winter the Thistle and Strathcona. This will allow the schedule to be completed in good time for the Provincial semi-finals.

The following suggestion is respectfully addressed to Jimmy York, care Thistle Rink. "Why not fix up a decent preys box with a coal oil stove in it. Reporters feel the cold just as much as anybody and besides they are generally total abstainers."

It is the intention of the learned gentleman who is promoting the Mercantile league to allow players in his circuit to participate in City league games and vice versa? The "blank" constitutions should be very explicit on that point.

And no more will Vicarman's lousy voice make the rafters ring with "Come on, you Deacons." But Captain Kidd is still with us. Consequently, we are saved.

The City League meets in the Y.M.C.A. on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. University of Alberta, Strathcona, Bankers, Y.M.C.A., Eskimos and Deacons are requested to have their delegates in attendance.

SEMI PRO. IDEA IS ABANDONED

Edmonton Hockey Club Gives Up the Idea of Interesting Saskatoon, Regina and P. Albert.

The Edmonton Hockey Club will not have a team this winter, but it will still retain its organization, and will be ready any moment to gather together a team if the necessity arises.

Such was the consensus of opinion expressed by the members at the annual meeting of the club held in the Y.M.C.A. last evening.

President Geo. B. Macleod was in the chair, and Treasurer Frank Day read both the treasurer's and secretary's reports, as Alf Kemp was not present.

The club is in a healthy financial condition, having a balance of $228.10 on hand. The receipts last winter were $722 of which some $700 was disbursed by cheque. The large item of expense—some $1500 expenses for the Edmonton Hockey Club's trip east in quest of the Stanley Cup.

The election of officers for 1910-11 then took place and resulted as follows:

President—Geo. B. Macleod.
Vice-President—H. J. Hellwell.
Second Vice-President—F. L. Day.
Treasurer—Harold Deaton.
Secretary—F. H. McPherson.

Under the head of new business, the meeting resolved itself into a general discussion on the possibility of a hockey team this winter.

Geo. Macleod informed the members present that he had written Regina, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon and Prince Albert regarding the proposed semi-pro league and had been favored with answers from none of these cities. Taking into consideration the lukewarmness of these clubs and also the apathy of the Edmontonians as evidenced by the sparse turn-out at the general meeting, Mr. Macleod thought it would be just as well for all concerned if no attempt was made to maintain a professional team this winter.

Mr. Hellwell, Mr. Day and Mr. Deaton also spoke in the same strain, but wished it made perfectly clear that the Edmonton Hockey Club was still in the field and able to break into active hockey any time the occasion arose.

The Stanley Cup idea has not dropped in any means, and Edmonton is very likely to obtain and a team again in a few years' time. There are too many loyal supporters of hockey in this city to ever let the pro, game die, and these men will never be satisfied until Lord Stanley's gift is received, Edmonton, Alta.

The question of putting a team in the Edmonton City League was discussed, but nothing definite was done about the matter.

Summing it up, the way pro hockey stands at present in Edmonton is, that the hockey club has elected its officers for 1911, but will do nothing definite about organizing a team until the necessity arises.

Fred Whitehead, Harold Deaton, Jack Winchester, Ray Miller, and Bert Boulton, are always available, while the two vacancies could easily be filled. This team could wait through any aggregation in the west.

PATRICK'S GREAT RUN.

A Harvard half-back ran 108 yards for a touch-down recently, a performance that Lester Patrick equaled in a hockey match three seasons ago. It was when the first Edmonton team came east for the Stanley cup, and they played an exhibition game in the Ottawa Arena with Alf Smith's Senators. Goal-keeper Lindsay was ruled off, and Patrick, who was playing point, went in the nets. The first shot, that came his way he blocked and started on a long run down the ice with the rubber. He had a through ticket and never let go the puck till he sunk it safely in the Senator's cage.

JOHN CAMERON WON SHOT PUT

Second Indoor Contest Held at the Y.M.C.A., Murdoch and White Also Won Events.

The second of the indoor contests was held at the Y.M.C.A. last evening and over thirty athletes were on hand to prepare for the Heathcote Contest which will take place next spring.

The three events, the 50 yard dash, three broad jumps and the 12 lb. shot put were keenly contested and splendid marks were set for them all.

John Cameron, champion shot putter of Alberta, won the shot put, throwing the 12 lb. nearly 41 feet. W. G. Robertson, formerly of the University of Toronto track team, was second.

L. S. Murdoch took the three broad jumps, his distance being 28 feet 2 inches. Peter Hammond was a good second, being only four inches behind.

N. J. White, one of the best all-around athletes at the Y.M.C.A., had the lowest time in the 50 yd. dash, one lap on the track. His time 6-2-5 sec. is probably the best yet made on the track for 50 yards. L. S. Murdoch was just 1-5 sec. behind.

Fred Parney will run the three events tonight while John Cameron will compete in the events he missed last Wednesday.

Summary.

50 yard dash—N. J. White, 6-2-5 sec.; L. S. Murdoch, 6-3-5 sec.; J. Nicholson, and J. W. Logan, 6-4-5 seconds.

Three broad jumps—L. S. Murdoch, distance 28 feet 2 inches; second, P. Hammond, 27 feet 9 1/2 in.; 3rd, J. D. Britton, 27 feet 2 in.

12 lb. shot put—John Cameron, distance 40 ft. 10 in.; 2nd, W. G. Robertson, 34 ft. 5 1/2 in.; 3rd, N. J. White, 33 ft. 8 in.

Last Week's Standing.

Philip Valentine has complied the following table on last week's events showing the leading scores up to last night. The scores to date will be published in Friday's Capital.

P. Hammond, 201; N. J. White, 250; Fred Parney, 248; G. W. Logan, 237; Alec McDonald, 236; B. Skinner, 237; A. E. Seward, 234; J. A. Nicholson, 232.

The events for Wednesday, November 23rd, are Fence Vault, 50 yard, potato race, 150 yards dash.

HIGH SCORES AMONG BOWLERS

Lethbridge, Grenfell and Calgary Bowlers are Shooting at Simonton's Mark.

The quality of bowling in the west seems to be improving very much this season.

Following closely upon Frank Simonton's grand performance at the Olympic All-overs, high scores are cropping up all over.

In Calgary on Tuesday night, Hinchorne rolled 266 at the Exchange Alley in a league game. He rolled only fourteen balls for his ten frames. He had 8 strikes and two spares, and two balls on his last frame for a strike.

The Lethbridge News tells of the fine mark for three successive league games set by Capt. Evans, of the Turkes, namely 646. This is an average of 215. Evans' total is just 100 better than the highest score rolled this winter in a league match in Toronto.

According to score cards sent in from Grenfell, Sask., there are some bowlers of class in that burgh. N. C. Vidal counted up a total of 666 for three games, 222, 224 and 220 which is no mean performance, while G. R. Strickland had a nice total of 661. Lines bowled the second best score of the day, his total being 609.

The "sleece-doodle" for the Olympic Bowling League is still in the hands of the manufacturer, but he promises on his sacred honor to have it ready for publication tomorrow. The season opens on Monday next.

INDOOR BALL FOR MOOSE

His Team Will Play Chan's on Friday—Chesley Cox and Rube Mills on Line-up.

The following are the players to take part in the indoor baseball game at Sherman's rink on Friday.

Chan's team will be Chandler, Seidenbocker, Stokes, Hoar, Turner, Barnstead, Standridge, Lepper, Christ.

Moose will have the following: M. Baxter, Andy Baxter, Henry Baxter, R. Mills, Chesley Cox, G. Mills, Clureth, Howard, Wain.

The game will start at 8 p.m. Indoor baseball is fast, and the poor umpire gets his worse than on the outdoor diamond. To umpire an indoor game it takes considerable ability, owing to the bases being so close, and the play fast.—The Albertan.

C.J. ECKSTORM IN A NEW ROLE

Is Turning His Baseball Park Into an Outdoor Skating Rink.

(Lethbridge Herald.)

Lovers of skating in Lethbridge will have a good time this winter. C. J. Eckstorm is having a part of the local ball park squared off in front of the grand stand which will give the skaters of the city, the largest sheet of ice they have ever had. The ice will be enclosed with a high wind-break on the west side and the rest of the ice will be fenced off to permit the playing of hockey. Everything for the convenience of the skaters will be arranged. There will be a band in attendance twice a week in all probability, and baseball and hockey matches will be held frequently.

The rink will be finished this week and will be flooded for ice the first cold wave.

"Capitol" Beer vs. "Budweiser"

We beg to inform our many patrons that we are using a temporary label for our "Capitol" Beer as an injunction has been granted by the Courts restraining us from using our original "Capitol" label pending our law suit with the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, of St. Louis, Mo. The quality of "Capitol" beer will be just the same, or better if we can make it so; and judging from the demand we are sure that our patrons know from experience that it is the BEER and not the label that has made "Capitol"

NOT THE WORK OF LOOTERS

The statement of the Rutherford government for the five months ending May 31, has been laid on the table of the house.

The five months represents the period during which the Rutherford government held office since the last provincial report.

In view of the fact that the government has been charged with all sorts of things, the report is worth looking into a little.

To state the matter briefly, the report shows that during the five months an overdraft on all counts, except telephone, of $130,866.82.

Included in this statement are all the items of public works such as the construction work done on the legislative buildings, the university, the Ponoka asylum, the Lethbridge court house, etc., etc., to the amount of $455,791.20.

These items are chargeable to capital account and are never expected to be paid out of current revenue.

When this subtraction is made it will be seen that for the five months, the Rutherford government had a surplus of revenue over expenditure of over three hundred thousand dollars.

Considering all the circumstances this does not look much like the work of a gang of looters, such as the Rutherford government is being represented to be by some parties who have an axe to grind.

A LITTLE ABOUT OURSELVES

Some bright genius with a fair appreciation of humor put a dispatch on the wires a few days ago to the effect that the present owners of the Capital are backed by the Municipal League.

The story was good enough as a joke, but it has served its purpose and should be called in.

The Capital is not backed by the Municipal League nor by any other league. It was purchased as a newspaper enterprise by the present proprietors, Williams MacAdams and Henry J. Roche.

Both proprietors are well known in the city and need no introduction. Both have followed the newspaper business for years, the former on the editorial end, the latter on the advertising end. Both have confidence that the Capital can be made a very valuable newspaper property.

Under the name of the Capital Printing and Publishing Company, Limited, a company has been incorporated according to the Alberta ordinances to take over the business.

In order that there may be no misapprehension about the policy of the Capital, it is just as well to set it down here.

In politics the Capital will follow the lines of what might be called the political new thought. It candidly admits being radical. It will be found in favor of free trade, single tax, public ownership of franchises, direct legislation, the referendum and recall, conservation, and the abolition of all special privileges. By the same token it will be found against all the foggy notions of the reactionaries. It is against the whole scheme of tariff and monopoly. It will never be found wildly enthusiastic about gigantic armies and navies and will never be an agitator for foreign wars. It believes that the time has already arrived for the abolition of the Senate. It believes that the statutory restrictions against trades unions should have been abolished long ago. It admits no man's right to a greater voice in the nation's affairs than his humblest neighbor and it will always be found opposed to the enactment of any legislation which tends away from the spirit of pure democracy.

For the reason that the Liberal party is the party which comes the nearest to the ideas which the Capital holds, the Capital will be found supporting the Liberal party.

This explanation is made for the reason that there seems to be some doubt about the Capital's position and proprietorship.

THE OLIVER ORGANS' INSANITY

Here are two statements, the first by Judges Scott and Harvey, and the second by the personal organ of the Minister of the Interior.

What the Commissioners say:

"It can only be said, in the opinion of your commissioners, that the evidence does not warrant the finding that there was any personal interest on the part of Dr. Rutherford or Mr. Cross, as is suggested by the words of the resolution of the Assembly."

What the Bulletin says:

"With the report of the evidence before them, only a scoundrel would declare the parties to have been 'absolutely vindicated and only a dunce could be made to believe it.'"

This looks pretty much like an attack on the judges of the supreme court; as though the Bulletin were willing to set itself up as a dictator to the commission. If this is the case it would be just as well that the country should know it at once.

The judges say there was no evidence of graft as far as they could find. The Bulletin says the man who accepts that at its face value is a scoundrel and the man who believes him is a dunce.

The statements are sufficiently lucid in both cases for any man to understand what the judges meant, on one hand, and what the Bulletin said, on the other.

The whole thing looks as though the Bulletin has gone insane over its attempt to assassinate the characters of the men who constituted the Rutherford government, and that in its desperate anxiety to put the senior member of Edmonton and the ex-premier out of business it is willing to go to any lengths, as has already been fully demonstrated.

JUST PARAGRAPHS

The employees of the Interior Department gave Frank Oliver a banquet the other night. They generally do that along about the finish.

Option dealers who sold Armstrong stock short will have to find a candidate quick or cover.

Alderman Gariepy's retirement from the field of municipal contest is a sad blow to the boys who furnish the copy. It is a dull day when the illustrious young attorney has not something printable to say on civic affairs.

MARBLES

(Toronto Star)

A speaker at the Baptist Convention is concerned because boys play marbles "for keeps." He need not be. The game is one of skill, the winner gets nothing of intrinsic value, and can do nothing with his accumulated marbles but use a limited number of them in the game. The only complaint against marbles that would seem at all well-grounded is that the small boy no longer knows how to play them. Almost any older boy will bear witness that there is not the skill and science in the game to-day that was involved in the marbles of a half or even a quarter of a century ago.

Not a little nonsense has been talked about gambling. The pulpit has been prone to declare that men gambled even at the foot of the cross, when they drew lots for the garments of the Crucified. But the drawing of lots is not only countenanced but counselled in the Scripture. The Lord told Moses that the land must be divided by lots among the tribes. The Apostles chose a successor to Judas by drawing lots as between Matthias and Justus.

Admittedly the line between what is gambling and what is not gambling is sometimes difficult to draw. But it may safely be said that the Convention might better concern itself with the mothers who play bridge for stakes which are beyond their purse and the fathers who buy stock on margin with money they cannot afford to lose. These are more legitimate subjects of criticism than the small boy with his bag of marbles.

PRICES OF BY-GONE DAYS

(From the Goderich Star)

Fancy hogs soaring to $9 a hundred, live weight. We remember dressed hogs, a dozen on a load of grain, at $3.50, and many old residents will recall it. In those days, over 40 years ago, fresh eggs were plentiful at five cents a dozen, and fresh butter at seven cents a pound, and we often carried those products to the store and took the value in trade in the County of Bruce.

A DEER IN PERTH COUNTY

(From the Stratford Herald)

A fair-sized doe yesterday made her appearance on the farm of Mr. J. W. Henkell, North Easthope, and by all accounts must have created somewhat of a sensation. She speedily scooted from there and appeared next in John Bloom's orchard at Brockden, where she made a meal of the windfalls scattered about the place.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL

After the display of ruffianism by students in Toronto last year they resolved to behave themselves on Halloween thereafter. They have been as good as their word. The Agricultural boys here have come to a similar resolution now and may be relied upon to live up to it.

fearfully made. He said that he had received countless letters from farmers complaining about it, who said that they were greatly surprised to find their farms mortgaged through the agreement. The purport of the bill, he said, was to make the introduction of mortgage clauses in such agreements illegal, and if they were composed in them to render the agreements invalid.

Mr. Howley, of Okotoks, expressed sympathy with the measure. Mr. Marshall had not said enough about the appreciation of the farmers.

The member for Okotoks thought he had an opportunity to assail the remarks about the condition of the farmers made by C. M. O'Brien, the Socialist member on Tuesday but on the commencement of his criticism the speaker called him to order, requesting him to confine himself to the subject under discussion.

Mr. Howley explained that his reason for calling attention to the matter was because the statements of Mr. O'Brien that the farmers of the province were in a poverty-stricken down-trodden condition should not go uncontradicted in view of the capital the American immigration people might make of it in their endeavors to stem the tide of immigration from the republic to this country. Mr. Howley was not permitted to proceed.

Dr. Warnock, of Pincher Creek, presented a petition for an amendment to the charter of the Pincher Creek, Cardston, and Montana Railway.

Hon. W. A. Buchanan, of Leithbridge, presented a petition to amend the charter of the city of Leithbridge. Lucien Boudreau, of St. Albert, presented a petition praying for the incorporation of the Edmonton Interurban Company.

J. K. Cornwell, of Peace River, introduced a bill for the incorporation of the Canadian Northwestern Railway Company.

Hon. W. H. Cushing introduced a bill to incorporate the Calgary Y. M. C. A.

Hon. W. A. Buchanan introduced a bill to grant authority to the town of Sufford to raise $2,000 for the construction of a waterworks department.

Hon. W. A. Buchanan introduced a bill to incorporate the Leithbridge Y. M. C. A.

All the foregoing bills were read the first time.

The report of the public accounts for the year 1909 was laid on the table by Premier Sifton.

The statement of public accounts for the Rutherford administration for the year ending May 31, 1910, which was laid on the table of the house yesterday by Premier Sifton showed that the total receipts on general revenue account were $2,151,663.40 and the total expenditure was $2,382,530.22. While the deficit on general revenue as can be seen was $130,866.82, yet at the same time it can be safely said that the Rutherford government finished its regime with a substantial surplus, as in the statement, no charge whatever has been made to public account. The exact surplus, however, will not be known until the end of the year, when the public accounts for the year are submitted, showing all charges to capital account. In the statement submitted yesterday, there are several items amounting to several thousand dollars each, which should go to capital account, and which far over-balance the deficit shown in general revenue.

Following is a summary of the receipts and expenditures for the five months:

HAS LOST HER SON.

Mrs. C. B. Allen, of the Allen Private Hospital, Hailburg, writes to the Daily Capital, asking if any information can be sent her as to the whereabouts of her son, William O. Allen. "My son," says the anxious mother, "has been lost to me for more than a year. He is not yet 18 years of age."

besides being the junction of three railway lines, which will all cross the river on one bridge and enter Calgary over one line, it is also the centre of a grand agricultural country, which is filled with good settlers.

The spot on the map at which it is expected the new metropolis will be is 62 miles south from Stettler, 45 miles east from Didsbury, and is reached at the present time from Acme on the Stettler branch. The steel cannot get into Fox coulee until next spring, but in the meantime people who have a desire to be off with the gun are crowding in over the grade which has just been completed.

DISTRICT COURT

The following cases were tried yesterday at Leduc before His Honour Judge Taylor in the District Court:

Perlie vs. Shaw, an action for work done, $70 Judgment for plaintiff and costs.

Forster vs. Carroll—Action to foreclose mortgage. Judgment was reserved.

His Honour returned to Edmonton last evening.

An appeal by Thos. McCallum against the judgment of Magistrate Cowan July 9th, 1910, in Police Court was held over.

Judge Harvey gave judgment yesterday in the Supreme Court in the Hartman vs. Howsen and Derkson case to the plaintiff, Albert Hartman, for $400 for failure of the defendant's to erect a hotel building on certain lots in Elm Grove. The purchase of the lots was made by Joseph Howsen and Isaac Derkson from Hartman on the understanding that a license could be secured and that Hartman would use his influence to secure it.

The license was never obtained and the building not erected, which was cause of the action. The rest of the action for damages for blocking a lane and for specific performance of the contract was dismissed. No costs were given.

TELL THE COMMISSIONERS

They Would Like to Hear of Any Naughty Moving Pictures.

The commissioners have requested the Temperance and Moral Reform League to forward in writing concrete instances of indecent or undesirable moving pictures presented in any of the licensed houses in Edmonton in accordance with the instructions of the city council made at the meeting on Tuesday night. Both organizations have also been invited to be represented by delegates at the next meeting of the council.

CZAR HAVING THE TIME OF HIS LIFE

Had the Moving Pictures Shown Backwards and Was Greatly Amused.

PLAYS WITH CHILDREN

For an Hour Every Day—Goes to the Opera House Every Evening.

Darmstadt, Germany, Nov. 17.—Czar Nicholas has been in Darmstadt more than a month, and shows no inclination to leave. Indeed, he is having "the time of his life," and the invalid Czarina could not be happier than she is in her native town.

Reports are conflicting as to how much her nervous condition has improved, and it is noticed that she keeps much in the background.

But the Czar occupies the same box each evening at the Opera House and joins heartily in the hand-clapping. He has shown a decided liking for "Fatale of Hoffman" and the "Kheisgold," consequently these are on the bill rather too frequently to suit local playgoers.

There was a cinematograph show in town and in honor of the august guest a film was exhibited depicting the Czar on his one and only sojourn in Paris, in a stately procession across the Place de la Concorde. After the film had been shown from the Imperial box, His Majesty was heard to suggest that he would like to see the result of it being shown backwards. For his edification this was done, with grotesque effect, of course, but the Czar was mightily amused at the sight of the soldiery and Imperial carriages backing out of sight.

By day the Czar saunters through town and makes purchases. Generally he finds time for an hour's play with his five children in the palace precincts.

The afternoon, wet or fine, is invariably devoted to long walks in the suburbs—often he goes ten miles and sometimes more. On these excursions he is accompanied by two members of his household, who, it is noticed, comport themselves as his friends and equals. Nicholas has even done away with the practice of the sovereign walking a pace or two ahead of his companions.

Like King Alfonso, he is never without a cigarette.

UNIVERSITY ACT

The bill to amend the University of Alberta Act as introduced by Hon. C. B. Mitchell in the legislature Tuesday afternoon is modelled after the act in force in Ontario. It provides for the establishment of a board of governors, in addition to the senate of the university. The board of governors is to have charge of all business matters pertaining to the institution, while the duties of the senate are to supervise the curriculum and other matters of an interior economic nature. The purchase of additional property, the appointment of professors, and other business matters will come under the jurisdiction of the governors.

The election of new senators for the University was due to the government's desire to have the amendment first submitted to the legislature.

SUPREME COURT

An action for the revision of a contract brought by Albert Hartman against Joseph Howson and Isaac Derksen occupied Chief Justice Harvey's attention in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon. In accordance with the recent arrangement His Lordship will relieve Mr. Justice Stuart of some of the cases set down for November, and for the balance of the week two Supreme Courts will be held.

The suit involves the sale of some lots in Elm Grove near the Grand Trunk shops at Calder. Hartman sold them to Howson and Derksen on the ground that they put up a hotel. Hartman made the excavation and the foundation was laid, but before a start could be made with the building the license was refused and operations suspended. Hartman is now suing to get the land back in addition to the amount expended in excavation.

This is Judge Harvey's first court case in Edmonton since his appointment as Chief Justice.

POULTRY PRIZE LISTS.

The prize lists for the poultry show on January 2nd, 4th, 5th and 6th are now printed and can be had on application to the exhibition association. The lists provide for some eighteen varieties of fowls.

Dying to New Life

(New York Press)

The wildest dream of romance and fable grows tame and insipid before the living realities of life and science.

We our own selves are dying and being born in some cells of our body every instant. That body which was the conscious and intelligent home of our spirit when we were children, and through whose gates and avenues our soul looked forth upon the world and friends around us, that shell, that temporary body, is long dead and gone into its grave of air, water, dust. And the body that we feel and possess is the mother or creator of its successors.

From the fact that every few years we get a perfectly new body through-out, that which seems surest and most secure to our faculties really waves and fluctuates with treacherous changes, and we ourselves slide away from ourselves and are none the wiser. While the spirit or inner man stays unchanged in the midst of all this hourly shift and change like a light-house in whirling change of sands and waters, the mind alone of all the man has the power of being constant.

"Strange we cannot make a single thing, yet we ourselves are undergoing a form of reconstruction and death every second all the time.

A SOCIAL EVENING

A social gathering was held in St. Andrew's Anglican Mission Church, corner of Ottawa and Jasper, avenue on Monday evening, with Archdeacon Gray in the chair. About one hundred were present, among them members of the Anglican clergy of the city. A number of the members of St. Andrew's Church took part in the entertainment. The Misses McDonald of Stuart street played a violin duet, accompanied by their mother. After the program the ladies of St. Andrew's Guild served a lunch for the guests.

EAT SAND FOR DYSPEPSIA SAYS WEALTHY BOSTON MAN

Spoonful of Sterilized Product Three Times a Day Will Prove Sure Cure Within Two Weeks, He Asserts.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 17.—"Common sand, sterilized properly, is a better remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion troubles than any medicine. It is the means of digestion of many animals, so why not a man also?" says William A. Graustein, a wealthy milk dealer of Boston.

"Many years ago I used to sit at my desk, incapable of work, dopy and dull. A physician suggested that I swallow a spoonful of sand three times a day until my attacks passed away. I tried the experiment, and it worked. Within two months I was cured. To-day, within ten minutes after eating a spoonful, I am capable of any work, and I think I work harder than any man in the United States."

"I have passed on the suggestion to any number of friends and the remedy has been infallible. If you suffer from inability to digest food, sterilize a handful of building sand, take a teaspoonful three times daily, and within two weeks, you will be a new man. "The solution is simple. If the stomach is not in perfect order, its lining is covered with a substance that prevents the digestive juices from permeating the lining to do their work. The sand acts simply as a scourer."

CANTATA AT WESTMINSTER CHURCH

On Thursday evening, December 1st, the choir of Westminster Church, assisted by other singers of the city will give a concert in the auditorium of the church. The first part of the programme is composed of miscellaneous numbers, and the second half, of the Cantata "Rolling Seasons" (C. B. Simpson). The soloists in the cantata will be Mrs. C. F. Newell (soprano), Miss Victoria Johnston (alto), Mr. Jackson Hanley (tenor) and Mr. Tom Tattersall (bass). Miss Cecile Smith, teacher of elocution at Albert College, will give several readings.

AMERICANS TIRED OF MENU IN FRENCH, SAY CATERERS

"Down with Consomme: Pass the Soup." Slogan of Cafes in Chicago and New York.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Down with "consomme" and "cambert"!! Pass the soup and cheese.

This is the gist of a revolt headed by New York waiters and managers of hotels and cafes and unopposed by Chicagoans of similar vocation.

Scratch "carte du jour" and let it read "steak to eat." Americans are dead tired of trying to pick out American food from a list printed in French. They have been weary of a foolish practice, say those who provide delectation for the inner man for years, but there never before has been a concerted movement to do away with the obnoxious menu cards in French.

Waiters, it is said, waste half their time explaining the significance of an entire French sentence which means simply "hash." Scores of patrons are said to avoid some of the fashionable eating places simply because of reluctance to worry over the program of viands gotten up by some French chef.

A PRETTY IRISH BULL

In the excitement of the moment public speakers often say the opposite of what they mean to convey, and "when Henry Irving gave a reading in the Ulster Hall in 1878," says Bram Stoker in "Personal Reminiscences of Henry Irving," one speaker made as pretty an Irish bull as could be found, though the bull is generally supposed to belong to other provinces than the hard-headed Ulster. In decanting on the many virtues of the guest of the evening, he mentioned the excellence of his moral nature and rectitude of his private life in the terms: "Mr. Irving, sir, is a gentleman who leads a life of unbroken blench."

The Conquest of Canaan

"What?" "Choe Louten is a better one," continued Mr. Farber, turning again to stare at his chickens. "Git out!"

"Git out!" repeated the other without passion, without anger, without any expression whatsoever. "Git out!" The reporter's prejudice against the German nation dated from that moment.

There were others, here and there, who were less self contained than the brewer. A farmhand struck a fellow laborer in the harvest field for speaking ill of Joe, and the marvelling of a strange street light one day disclosed as its cause a resentment on the part of a blind brewmaster, engendered by a like offense. The brewmaster's companion, reading the Tocsin as the two walked together, had begun the quarrel by remarking that Happy Fear ought to be hanged once for his own sake and twice more "to show up that stoker London."

Warm words followed, leading to extremely material conflict, in which, in spite of his blindness, the brewmaster had so much the best of it that he was moved from the triumphant attitude he had assumed toward the person of his adversary, which was an admirable imitation of the demagogue St. George and the dragon, and conveyed to the jail. Keenest investigation failed to reveal anything oblique in the man's record. To the misanthropic of Canaan, there was nothing against him. He was blind and moderately poor, but a respected, hardworking citizen, a pride to the church in which he was what has been called an "active worker."

It was discovered that his sensitiveness to his companion's attack on Joseph London arose from the fact that Joe had obtained the acquittal of an imbecile sister of the blind man, a treacherous woman who had been charged with bigamy.

The Toosh made what it could of this, and so deservingly that the wrath of Canaan was one further jet increased against the slyster. Aye, the town was hot, inside and out.

Let us consider the forum. Was there ever before such a snuffbox for the National House corner? How voices first thithered, then crashed and plowed, is not to be recorded in all the tales of the fathers. One who would make virid the great dolms must indeed "dip his trust in earthquake and eclipse." Even then he could but picture the credible and must despair of this—the silence of Eskew Arp. Not that Eskew held his tongue, not that he was chary of speech—no! O tempora, O mores! Not that he refused the subject in hand, but he eschewed expression upon it and resolutely drove the argument in other directions, that he relieved such supererogatory inconsistency, and with such rich material for his sardonic humors, not at arm's length, not even so far as his finger tips, but beneath his very palms, he rejected it. This was the impossible fact.

Eskew—there is no option but to declare—was no longer Eskew. It is the truth. Since the morning when Ariel Tabor came down from Joe's office, leaving her offering of white roses in that dingy, dusty, shady place, Eskew had not been himself. His comrades observed it somewhat in a physical difference, one of those alterations which may come upon men of his age suddenly, like a "see change." His face was whiter, his walk slower, his voice flatter. He creased looser when he rose or sat. Old always from his boyhood, he had in the turn of a hand become aged. But such things come and such things go. After eighty there are ups and downs. People falling away one week bloom out pleasantly the next, and resiliency is not at all a patent belonging to youth alone. The material change in Mr. Arp might have been thought little worth remarking. What caused Peter Bradbury, Squire Buckle and the colonel to shake their heads secretly to one another and wonder if their good old friend's mind had not "begun to go" was something very different. To come straight down to it, he not only obtained from all argument upon the "Cory murder" and the case of Happy Fear, refusing to discuss either in any terms or under any circumstances, but he also declined to speak of Ariel Tabor or of Joseph London or of their affairs, singular of plural, masculine, feminine or neuter, or in any declension. Not a word committal or noncommittal. None!

And his face when he was silent fell into sorrowful and troubled lines. The voices of the fathers fell to the pitch of ordinary discourse; the drowsy town was quiet again; the whine of the plating mill boring its way through the stifling air to every window was far away on a quiet street it sounded faintly, like the hum of a bee across a creek, and was drowned in the noise of men at work on the old Tabor house. It seemed the only busy place in Canaan that day, the shade of the big beech trees which surrounded it affording some shelter from the destroying sun to the dripping laborers who were sawing, hammering, palting, planing, papering and ripping open old and new packing boxes. There were many changes in the old house—pleasantly in keeping with its simple character—any enlargements now almost completed so that some of the rooms were already finished and stood, furnished and immaculate, ready for tenancy. In that which had been Roger Ta-

AT THE EMPIRE

Below is what some of the Critics say of the Royal Welsh Ladies Choir which will appear at the Empire Theatre on Wednesday, November 23: "The Choir, which, for coining purposes, consists of twenty-five selected vocalists, all of whom are of attractive personality, sang with a delightful and appealing quality of voice that delighted beautifully in the ensemble. The shading tone, while not exaggerated, revealed varied nuances of power, from a delicate pianissimo to the degree of fortissimo that so limited a number of singers could reasonably be expected to attain. . . . When, at the close of the act, the choir sang the 'Hail Wind by Mithras,' the whole audience rose en masse."—Toronto Globe, Nov. 8, 1909.

ECLIPSE OF MOON

The eclipse of the moon last evening which was plainly visible in Edmonton, lasted over three hours, the moon entering the shadow at 4.4 and emerging at 7.58 p. m. This eclipse was visible over Europe and Africa and parts of America. In Edmonton it was seen to good advantage as it occurred just after darkness fell at a time when people were going home from work and the clear atmosphere and absence of clouds showed it up as a dull red disk in the sky for about an hour.

This is the second and last eclipse of the moon this year.

"LIFE OF JOSEPH HOWE"

The life of Joseph Howe, from the time when he began the printing trade in Halifax, traced through his various stages, to the zenith of his career and finally to his death, was the subject on which R. B. Bennett, M.P.P., addressed the Maritime club last night in the Oldfield hall.

He was the type of man which is characteristic of the Maritime provinces, said Mr. Bennett, and his spirit was the spirit of the times in which he lived. He had a wider knowledge, a stronger grasp, and a finer appreciation of imperial affairs, although his life work was confined to the province in which he lived, than any Canadian who has since lived.

Howe's in the political career of Joseph Howe in Nova Scotia, were reviewed as some length by Mr. Bennett, paying particular attention to Howe's great liberal spirit and his agitation which resulted in the final deposition of two governors. In an eloquent manner Mr. Bennett told of Howe's early struggle and ultimate successes with the final triumph in the accession to the governorship of the province, from which office he ousted two.

Joseph Howe's publication of an article protesting against the tax laws enveloped him in a libel suit, instigated by the attorney-general of the province. Howe, unable to secure counsel to defend him, handled his own and in such an able manner, with inspiring eloquence, finally freed him of the suit. The support given to Howe by the people throughout the trial, culminated in his acquittal to great rejoicing throughout the province.

It was at the age of 41 that Joseph Howe took his seat in the legislature at Nova Scotia. He soon began a campaign of "education" against the governor, and in spite of parliamentary precedent, and accusations of less mystic levelled against him, by other members of the house, he finally achieved his object, the deposition of the unsympathetic governor.

Joseph Howe's struggle with Sir Charles Tupper and the former's antagonism to consideration were also referred to by Mr. Bennett, while Howe's life as a man and individual, his aesthetic and literary appreciations, and his successes in the field of journalism was a shining example of noble citizenship.

"When he lived in government house he was spoken of as the Honorable Joseph Howe," said Mr. Bennett, "but when he had died they said: 'Joe Howe is dead.' He had won a place in the hearts of the people and they loved him to the last. When he was alive they respected him, and when he was dead they loved him in the memories of the people as Joe Howe, their friend."

NATIONALISTS WILL BATTLE IN PRESCOTT

Ottawa, Nov. 17.—Mr. Bourassa's promise to carry his campaign into Eastern Ontario is likely soon to be implemented by meetings in Prescott and Russell counties.

The meetings in Russell County will attract widespread attention as it has for some time been rumored that the Nationalists would contest the seat of Hon. Charles Murphy. (The Secretary of States has never been very popular with the French voters of his constituency, and might be defeated if Mr. Bourassa could be prevailed upon to stand against him. Whether Bourassa becomes a candidate or not, it is evident that a strong campaign is to be commenced against Mr. Murphy at once with a view to defeating him at the general elections.)
